

17th International Colloquium on Roman Provincial Art Vienna / Carnuntum, 16th–21st May 2022

Time(s) of transition and change

Second circular

Dear colleagues,

after the postponement of one year due to the pandemic, we are pleased to invite you again to the 17th International Colloquium on Roman Provincial Art in Vienna and Carnuntum!

Place and time:

Vienna and Carnuntum, 16th–21st May 2022

Subject of the conference:

The main topic of the conference are the stone monuments of the Roman provinces in their various forms of appearance as components of architectural and sculptural ensembles or as bearers of inscriptions. We aim to shed light on the wide-ranging informative value of these monuments and to place them in their cultural and historical context.

Participants are invited to focus their presentations and discussions on one of the following main subjects:

- New methods of analysis, presentation and evaluation of ancient stone monuments
- Monuments of Late Antiquity
- New finds and current themes

Types of contributions:

Presentation, duration 20 min. + 10 min. discussion

Short contribution + poster, duration 8 min.

Languages:

German, English, French, Italian, Spanish

Deadlines:

Submission of a (short) contribution: (abstract 500 words max.) until 31st October 2021

Participation without contribution: until 31st March 2022, afterwards with increased fee.
